

Scripture Prayers from Philippians

“Gracious God, who began a good work in _____, we pray that you carry it to completion until the day of Christ Jesus” (Philippians 1:6).

“God of hope, we pray that _____’s love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that _____ may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ” (Philippians 1:9-10).

“Generous God, we pray that you fill _____ with the fruit of righteousness that comes through Jesus Christ” (Philippians 1:11).

“Father God, we pray through your provision of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, that what has happened to _____ will turn out for his/her deliverance” (Philippians 1:19).

“Gracious God, we pray that in humility _____ will value others above himself/herself, not looking to his/her own interests but to the interests of others. And we pray that in _____’s relationships with others, he/she will have the mindset of Christ Jesus” (Philippians 2:3-5).

“Righteous God, do a work in _____ that he/she may do everything without grumbling or arguing. Cause _____ to shine like stars in the sky” (Philippians 2: 14-15).

“God of Strength, we pray that _____ will strain toward what is ahead and press on toward the goal to win the prize for which you have called him/her heavenward in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 3:14).

“Heavenly Father, we pray that _____ will rejoice in the Lord always. And we pray that _____ will let his/her gentleness be evident to all” (Philippians 4:4-5).

“Lord who is near, we pray that _____ will not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, that _____ will present his/her requests to you, God. We pray that your peace, which transcends all understanding, will guard _____’s heart and mind in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6-7).

“Heavenly Father, we pray that whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—that _____ would think about such things” (Philippians 4:8).

“Father God, we pray that you give _____ the courage and confidence to know that he/she can do all that you put before him/her through Christ who gives him/her strength” (Philippians 4:13).

“Sovereign God, we pray that you meet all of _____’s needs according to the riches of your glory in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:19).
